

Hello,

The heart of the entire people is continuing to beat with resistance and struggle For Justice.

As much as it beats together with you in Syria and in Gaza, it is beating with the same hope in between the walls.

Neither the power of the bandits nor of the masters will be strong enough to enserf that heart.

I greet the symposium and send my Love full of resistance and hope. I send it both in my name, as well as in the name of all hearts in between the walls, who couldn't let their voices be heard but carry the same hope.
